

Mickleover Methodist Church – April 2020

What a difference a month makes! Life is very different for us all with the ‘stay at home’ and social distancing rules. Some of us are having to find new ways of working, or new ways of occupying our time. While others are having to find new ways of having a moment of quiet with children to home school as well as work to be done from home!

With our church building, along with many others, closed we are all having to find new ways of worshipping. But church was never the building, or shouldn't have been! Church is always the people, the living body of Christ, and we are still God's people in this place. We may not be able to meet physically this Easter Sunday to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour, but we can still rejoice together that Jesus is alive and present with us, wherever we are, and that we are united by his Spirit.

Modern technology gives some of us the opportunity to worship together using Zoom and we will continue to meet weekly in this way for as long as the church building is closed. For those who are unable to join Zoom the weekly worship sheet will continue to be circulated. We use this service sheet in the Zoom service, thus each week we are joining together in prayer and in reading, and reflecting upon, God's word. '¹⁶ I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, ¹⁷ and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love.' (Eph 3:16-17)

May the peace and joy of the Lord be with you all this Easter.

Rev Gill

Every time you wash your hands sing praise to God with the chorus of one of these hymns, it will only take the necessary 20/30 seconds to sing:

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

HOW GREAT THOU ART

Recognising You – Resurrection Poem

Bible references: John 20 1-31, John 21 1-19, Luke 24 13 -35

Jesus in the garden, newly risen from the dead, who stood by weeping Mary, and who heard the words she said
as if you were the gardener, till at last your shepherd's voice called her 'Mary' and with one word gave her reason to rejoice, Jesus in the garden, ever new but still the same,
help me recognise you in the speaking of my name.

Jesus on the journey, fellow traveller on the road, who met two sad disciples, walking with them as you showed the meaning of the scriptures that predicted you would rise, but only when you blessed the meal could they believe their eyes.
Jesus on the journey, meet me where my hopes have fled,
help me recognise you in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus in the locked room, breaking through despair and doubt, who comforted your friends when they had shut the whole world out, who came again for Thomas, and revealed your hands and side so that he could touch and know you as alive, though you had died.
Jesus in the locked room, breaking through our self-built bars,
help me recognise you in the touching of your scars.

Jesus on the shoreline, cooking breakfast for your friends,
who offered guilty Peter one more chance to make amends, who filled a net with fish for him, and helped him to recall the first catch that convinced him to respond to your first call.
Jesus on the shoreline, know my best, forgive my worst,
help me recognise you in the way I met you first.
